Policy Priorities

1. Ending homelessness for all persons

- Identify, engage, and effectively serve everyone
- Measure performance using local data
- Implement comprehensive outreach
- Use local data to understand characteristics of homelessness and develop housing and services
- Use reallocation to create new projects that improve overall performance and better respond to local needs

Policy Priorities

2. Create a systemic response to homelessness

- Use system performance measures (avg. length of homeless episodes, rates of return to homelessness, and rates of exit to permanent housing) to determine system effectiveness
- Use coordinated entry to promote participant choice, coordinate homelessness assistance and mainstream housing and services to ensure people experiencing homelessness receive assistance quickly, make homelessness assistance open, inclusive, and transparent

Policy Priorities

3. Strategically allocate and use resources

- Use data to improve how resources are utilized
- Review project quality, performance, and cost-effectiveness
- Maximize the use of mainstream and other community-based resources
- Review all projects eligible for renewal to determine effectiveness

Policy Priorities

4. Use a Housing First Approach

- Help families and individuals move quickly into permanent housing
- Measure and help projects reduce the length of time people experience homelessness
- Engage landlords and property owners
- Remove barriers to entry, and adopt client-centered service methods

Tiering and Scoring

Reallocation

Making reallocation decisions:

- Be purposeful
- Focus on performance and outcomes

- Compare projects population by population
- Use reallocation to fill gaps in the community

Permanent Housing Bonus

Up to 6% of the CoC's FPRN for the follow types of new projects:

- Permanent Supportive Housing
PSH projects that will be fully dedicated to chronically homeless families and individuals or those projects that meet the requirements of DedicatedPLUS
- Rapid Re-housing
- Joint Component Projects

Strategies for Success

- Use a performance scorecard or HUD's rating and ranking tool to rank projects
- Use intervention-appropriate metrics to measure the performance of programs, particularly those serving youth and survivors of domestic violence
- Use best practices in designing an effective, transparent coordinated entry system that promotes participant choice and engages all parts of the system
- Reallocate based on a fair process, as well as a thorough and transparent evaluation of projects, reallocating away from projects that are underutilized or underperforming
- CoCs and project applicants should thoroughly review every application to ensure that information is accurate
- Prioritize admission of turnover PSH units to people experiencing chronic homelessness, employing a Housing First approach, and leveraging other resources, including Medicaid, for supportive services
- Prioritize planning and data-gathering in the CoC process

Common Strategies to Avoid

- Shaving a little from each project does not allow for effective implementation or prioritization.
- Do not apply for projects that are underutilized, underperforming, or that no longer meet the needs of people experiencing homelessness. Reallocate instead.
- Closed and subjective ranking processes do not reflect an effective approach to ranking.
- Do not leave funds on the table.
